Terms & Conditions (T&Cs) Service Package Delivery Address in Switzerland

General provisions

Soliswiss offers its members the opportunity to have personal letters from Swiss senders forwarded to Soliswiss. Soliswiss accepts the member's post and, depending on the service package, delivers it to the member by scanning it and/or forward it to the member.

Personal requirements

1. This service is an exclusive product for Soliswiss members. You can only sign up for the service package once the membership fees have been paid.
2. You must remain a Soliswiss member during the entire contractual period.
3. Members must be of legal age and capable to act in accordance with Swiss law.

Service packages

1. The user can choose between various service packages. The purpose of the various service packages is to provide a delivery address in Switzerland and to forward correspondence to the user.
2. You can choose between the following service packages: "Standard", "Standard Plus", "Light", "Light Plus".

Use of the c/o Soliswiss delivery address

1. After signing up for a service package, the user may use c/o Soliswiss as their delivery address within the framework of these T&Cs.

2. The user is not permitted to indicate this address as their registered, home or domicile address or to make it seem like this address is their registered, home or domicile address.
3. The user must not use the delivery address for illegal or unethical activities, circumvention of the law or for misleading others.

Permissible deliveries

1. Soliswiss will only accept letters in standard envelopes from senders previously indicated by the user.
2. The delivery address must not be used for parcels or packages, unless agreed with Soliswiss in advance in exceptional cases.
3. Correspondence must not include contents that are considered dangerous, illegal or offensive in Switzerland or in the country to which it will be forwarded to. The user guarantees that the legal provisions of the respective countries, including the export and import provisions, will be complied with.

Permissible senders

1. The user has the right to indicate c/o Soliswiss as the delivery address to the contractually agreed number of senders.
2. These senders must be domiciled in Switzerland.
3. The user must indicate the sender addresses to Soliswiss in advance. Soliswiss reserves the right to reject a sender address without indicating the reason.

Number of the included letters to Soliswiss

There is no limit to the number of letters that can be sent to Soliswiss

Scanning of letters and access via a secure storage medium

1. If the "Standard" or "Standard Plus" service package is selected, Soliswiss shall open the letter, scan it and make the scans available to the user on a storage platform.
2. Soliswiss creates the scans within three working days of the letter being delivered, stores them on the platform and notifies the user via e-mail.
3. During the contractual period, the user is free to leave the scanned letters on the platform, to download them, to save them elsewhere or to delete them.
4. The storage platform is selected by Soliswiss. The aim is to select a storage platform with a storage medium in Switzerland and a high security standard.

Cost of data storage space

The data storage space for a volume of up to 1 GB (gigabyte) is included in the service price.

Forwarding of letters

1. Soliswiss shall forward the letters to the user on the specified date.
2. For this purpose, the user must provide Soliswiss with an address (forwarding address) where they would like Soliswiss to send the letters. The country selection is not limited.
3. If the "Light" or "Standard" service package is selected, the letters will be forwarded every three months. If the "Light Plus" or "Standard Plus" service package is selected, the letters will be forwarded every month.
4. If the user would like a letter to be delivered immediately, they shall indicate this to Soliswiss by E-Mail via mail@soliswiss.ch. In this case, Soliswiss shall forward the letter within three working days. The user will be charged the additional cost.
5. The user can also pick up their letters personally from Soliswiss. In this case, they must do so during Soliswiss' opening hours or by arrangement, at least once a year.
6. If the "Light" or "Light Plus" service package is selected, the letters are usually forwarded unopened. Soliswiss reserves the right to open letters should the company assume that the user has violated important provisions of the T&Cs, in particular the provisions regarding the points indicated under Item 3 in "Permissible deliveries".
7. At the time of forwarding, Soliswiss will inform the user how many letters have been forwarded.

Selection of the forwarding provider and the forwarding type

1. The user can choose between the forwarding providers proposed by Soliswiss as well as the forwarding type. Usually, this is only done once, at the time of conclusion of the contract.
2. Should the user need to change the forwarding provider or the forwarding type, they will need to contact Soliswiss.
3. In coordination with Soliswiss, the user can establish special regulations for individual letters or senders. Soliswiss may invoice the user for any potential additional cost.

Forwarding cost relating to forwarding of letters

1. The user is to pay any forwarding cost. The forwarding cost is based on the rates of the chosen forwarding provider and the forwarding type.
2. Depending on the volume, Soliswiss will charge the user for the forwarding cost four times a year, twice a year or once a year. Should the annual forwarding cost be under CHF 10.00, Soliswiss will not include it in the invoice.

Change of service package

- The user can always additionally purchase the monthly forwarding option. They can also change from the "Light" service package to the "Standard" service package.
- If you change your service package, you will be charged a pro rata surcharge (on a 12-month basis).

Liability

1. At no point shall Soliswiss be liable for any damages or losses incurred during forwarding. Any returned letters will be re-sent on the next forwarding date.
2. Soliswiss' duty of care is limited to the contractual storage, processing (scanning and uploading) and forwarding of letters.
3. Soliswiss cannot assume any liability whatsoever for the adherence to any deadlines contained in the letters.
4. At no point can accepting any letters give rise to any liability claims on the part of the sender or any third parties against Soliswiss. The only contractual obligation that Soliswiss has is towards the user.
5. The users themselves are responsible for selecting a service package and a forwarding type or, in individual cases, for providing special instructions to ensure that the letters are delivered on time and in good condition.
6. Soliswiss does not insure deliveries unless the user expressly states they need an insurance. In such cases, the insurance must be paid by the user.

Confidentiality

1. Soliswiss undertakes to treat confidentially any information it receives in the course of its contractual relationship with the user; in particular, it will treat any sender addresses, forwarding addresses and contents of deliveries as confidential.
2. Soliswiss is not obligated to maintain confidentiality should the company suspect any illegal activities or should any competent authorities require it to disclose information in order to ensure compliance with legal provisions.

Contractual period

1. The contract period is one year.
2. This period shall not begin until the service package has been paid for.

Payment terms

1. Any service packages must be paid for in advance and for the entire one-year period.
2. During the contract period, additional services can be purchased. These will be invoiced periodically.
3. Forwarding will be charged to the recipient without any surcharge.
4. Payments are to be made in Swiss francs, expenses must be borne by the user.

Reasons for an early termination of the contractual relationship

1. Soliswiss can terminate the contract with immediate effect
  - If we suspect the delivery address is being misused

- If Soliswiss suspects any illegal or prohibited activities.
2. Soliswiss can terminate the contract after one warning has been given
    - If the member has not paid their Soliswiss membership fee
    - If invoices for extra services or forwarding costs have not been paid.
  3. The user can terminate the contract in writing at any time before its expiry date.
  4. In the event of an early termination of the contract, the service package purchase price cannot be refunded. Any unpaid cost of forwarding or extra services shall remain outstanding.

Consequences of a termination of the contractual relationship

1. If the contract for the "Standard" service package is subject to an early termination or if it ends as scheduled without being extended by the user, the user shall have an additional 30 days to access their data storage space. After these 30 days have elapsed, access and the data shall be deleted.
2. Any letters in the possession of Soliswiss shall be forwarded to the user at the user's expense.
3. Should any letters reach Soliswiss after the end of the contractual period, they shall be returned to the sender marked "Unknown recipient".

Jurisdiction and applicable law

1. Place of jurisdiction is Bern, Switzerland.
2. The applicable law is Swiss law.
